This book is about a stray cat. I used to be a stray cat too, but I found a home with PAWS. Fitz is the cat in this book and he finds a home too, but not the one that you might expect. The best part of this book for me is looking at the really cool pictures and finding out where the cat is hiding in them- he is very tricky. Can you find Fitz in all the pictures?

Sometimes moms and dads don't live together, and that means kids have to have two of lots of things- two bedrooms, two kitchen tables, and two toothbrushes. But there is only one Fred. Fred is a dog, and he goes with his girl where ever she is, even if that sometimes causes trouble. I like reading about Fred because my people are divorced too, and I could really understand the troubles that Fred and his girl are having. My person takes me everywhere that she goes too, even though sometimes I cause trouble, but my favorite place to go is with the PAWS Buddy Brigade when we visit people and make new friends.

Did you know that dogs and cats can be friends? This is the true story of two friends who lived where there was a really big storm and they lost their house and their family, but they did not lose each other. I have a really good cat friend too and that's why I liked this story a lot. Even though some parts are kind of sad, the two Bobbies are best friends always. I have lots of friends that I meet as a therapy dog.
